The Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Lamentations 1:1-6

How lonely sits the city that once was full of people!
How like a widow she has become,
she that was great among the nations!
She that was a princess among the provinces has become a vassal.
She weeps bitterly in the night,
with tears on her cheeks;
among all her lovers
she has no one to comfort her;
all her friends have dealt treacherously with her,
they have become her enemies.
Judah has gone into exile with suffering and hard servitude;
she lives now among the nations,
and finds no resting place;
her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

The roads to Zion mourn,
for no one comes to the festivals;
all her gates are desolate,
her priests groan;
her young girls grieve,
and her lot is bitter.
Her foes have become the masters,
her enemies prosper,
because the Lord has made her suffer for the multitude of her transgressions;
her children have gone away,
captives before the foe.
From daughter Zion has departed
all her majesty.
Her princes have become like stags
that find no pasture;
they fled without strength
before the pursuer.

Psalm 37:1-10

Noli aemulari

1. Do not fret yourself because of evildoers; *
do not be jealous of those who do wrong.
2. For they shall soon wither like the grass, *
and like the green grass fade away.
3. Put your trust in the Lord and do good; *
dwell in the land and feed on its riches.
4. Take delight in the Lord, *
and he shall give you your heart's desire.
5. Commit your way to the Lord and put your trust in him, * and he will bring it to pass.
6. He will make your righteousness as clear as the light * and your just dealing as the noonday.
7. Be still before the Lord * and wait patiently for him.
8. Do not fret yourself over the one who prospers, *
the one who succeeds in evil schemes.
9. Refrain from anger, leave rage alone; *
do not fret yourself; it leads only to evil.
10. For evildoers shall be cut off, * but those who wait upon the Lord shall possess the land.

2 Timothy 1:1-14

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus,

To Timothy, my beloved child:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

I am grateful to God-- whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did-- when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

Luke 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!" The Lord replied, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

"Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here at once and take your place at the table'? Would you not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink'? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, 'We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!'"

Do Something by Matthew West

I woke up this morning
Saw a world full of trouble now
Thought, how'd we ever get so far down
How's it ever gonna turn around
So I turned my eyes to Heaven
I thought, "God, why don't You do something?"
Well, I just couldn't bear the thought of People living in poverty
Children sold into slavery
The thought disgusted me
So, I smy fist at Heaven
Said, "God, why don't You do something?"
He said, "I did, I created you"

(Refrain)

*If not us, then who
If not me and you
Right now, it's time for us to do something
If not now, then when
Will we see an end
To all this pain
It's not enough to do nothing
It's time for us to do something*

I'm so tired of talking About how we are God's hands and feet
But it's easier to say than to be Live like angels of apathy who tell ourselves
It's alright, "somebody else will do something"
Well, I don't know about you
But I'm sick and tired of life with no desire
I don't want a flame, I want a fire
I wanna be the one who stands up and says,
I'm gonna do something"
We are the salt of the earth
We are a city on a hill
But we're never gonna change the world
By standing still
No we won't stand still
No we won't stand still
No we won't stand still

Announcements

WELCOME

Visiting Today? Welcome to St Anne's. You will find a card that describes our Sunday service in the pew rack in front of you. During the announcements, you will be invited to identify yourself as a visitor - please know you will not be asked to stand or to speak, we simply want to provide you with a visitor's bag. We invite you to sign our visitor's book located in the Narthex before you leave today. Please join us in Miller Hall following the service for a time of fellowship and to meet our clergy. We are so glad you chose to join us this morning!

To volunteer register online at diofdl.org, call (920) 725-5601 or sign up in Miller Parish Hall.

Sharing our Stories: In Paul's letter to the Galatians, we were reminded that generosity is one of the hallmarks of discipleship. We want to invite you to reflect on your life with St. Anne's family in the coming months especially as it relates to generosity. Your generosity AND the generosity of St. Anne's family. You are invited to share some of your story. On tables in Miller Parish Hall there are table tents with a question and sheets to write your story, your thoughts. Then post them on the designated board. You can include your name, or you can choose not to give your name. Some of the comments will be included in each month's Good News. There are sheets in the office as well. You can also send your responses via email or regular mail. (stannesoffice@sbcglobal.net)

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Good News Café is an exploration of the Bible, with plenty of discussion! This fall: The Revelation to John, ten sessions, Wednesday at noon and at 5:00, which began September 11th and will end November 20th. Bring a bag lunch if you'd like. We'll have coffee, tea, ice water available and snacks available for purchase. The book we are using is Journey Through Revelation, Apocalyptic Hope for Today by Barbara R. Rossing, available for $8. * As a reminder, we are not meeting this Wednesday, October 9th.

Adult Forum: The "Way of Love" Series. Through Sunday, October 20th (except for today) during the 9 am education hour in Miller Parish Hall we will be exploring "The Way of Love" practices that our Presiding Bishop, Michael Curry is preaching and teaching across the country. If you heard his sermon, "Love Is the Way!" at the Royal Wedding last year, you got a taste of what this is all about. Our Presiding Bishop Curry will be at the Fond du Lac Diocesan Convention this year and will be preaching a REVIVAL! in Appleton on Saturday, October 26th. Let's all get ready, not only for ourselves but also for all of our family, friends, neighbors, and co-workers, no matter what their faith. Presented by the Spiritual Growth Team and David Annis.

YOUTH GROUP

Youth Group meets on Wednesdays at 6 pm. All youth grades 6-12 are invited.

Oct 25-27: Diocesan Fall Lock-In at All Saint's Church, Appleton. Our theme is the Way of Love and we will attend the Way of Love Revival at the Fox Cities Expo Center in Appleton on Saturday. The fee is $30 per person. If this is difficult to pay, let Jenny Watson know and we'll work something out. Sign up online at www.diofdl.org/lockin.

Nov 22-24: Happening #75 at St Anne's. Open to students in grades 9-12. Sign up online at www.diofdl.org/happening. Students who have already attend Happening are invited to apply to serve on staff.

PARISH LIFE

NEW Community Luncheon: Saturday, January 25, 2020 from 9:00a am-1:00 pm

St Anne's Men's Ministry: Coordinator needed. Please contact St Anne's office if interested. Joe Brand has helped coordinate 3 upcoming events: Chili Sale (details to come), Salvation Army Bell Ringing, and NEW Community Luncheon.

Coffee Hour: St. Anne's is a welcoming congregation, and a part of that is our coffee hour! Invite the person next to you, the person who is new, the person you don't know very well to join you for a cup of coffee and conversation. Treats are always nice to have, so sign up for a Sunday every now and then to bring treats. And then pitch in to help with the clean up. St. Anne's is a family living and growing in Christ: and sharing in the ministry of welcoming!

Do you want to use space at St. Anne's for church or personal purposes? If so, please contact Bobbie at the church office (336-9571) to confirm availability of the various spaces and any fees associated with that use.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH TEAM

REVIVE starts TOMORROW! There are still slots available. There are 7 sessions total. This small-group discipleship program meets on Mondays, from 5:30 -7:30 (except the first session which will be about an hour longer). Cost is only $12 for the Participant's Guide. Sign up in Miller Parish Hall.

OUTREACH

Round Up for the DPCO Food Pantry: Piggly Wiggly (Swan Road) is offering to round up your total to benefit the Food Pantry, now through the holidays. This is an easy way to contribute and these proceeds will benefit people right in our community.

Feed My Starving Children MobileMeal Pack: The Mobile Pack is THIS WEEK! It will be held at Green Bay Community Church (600 Cardinal Lane) Monday, October 7 through Thursday, October 10. You can register online at http://tiny.cc/FMSC_GB to be a part of the MobileMealPack. See the Good News for details or the FMSC Board in Miller Hall.

-Wednesday 415 pm to 6 pm, need two volunteers to help at registration.

-Wednesday 430 pm to 7 pm, greet volunteers and help coordinate that supplies are available to packers on the main floor. Involves being on your feet for whole time.

If this is something you are interested in doing, please contact Teri Egger, cracked_eggs41@hotmail.com, Susan Darling, sdarling717@gmail.com, or sign up on the FMSC bulletin board at the back of Miller Hall.

URGENT NEED!!!! On Sunday, November 17th we will be holding Blanket Sunday. In an effort to keep us connected and reaching out to the community, St. Anne's will be collecting blankets (gently used and new) to be donated to the St. John's Homeless Shelter. In speaking to the shelter, they were very excited to receive our donation, but shared the great need to have blankets at least some blankets ready for when the shelter opens on November 1st. So.... we will begin collecting blankets NOW! They can especially use twin size blankets and preferably NOT comforter types which are very bulky for their clients to carry with them. Please bring donations to the church and drop them off in the donation box in the narthex or in the office. Let's help share the warmth and let our less fortunate sisters and brothers know that they are cared for!!! You can "Do Something"!!!!

WORSHIP

Altar Flowers Remember to schedule flowers for your special occasion or memory. Donations are $40 per arrangement and can be placed in the offering plate on Sunday, in the collection box in the narthex, or handed in to the office. Sign up in the narthex.

Worship Volunteers: If serving as a worship volunteer is something that you feel called to do or simply would like to explore, please let the office know. We will make sure you are trained and comfortable in whatever role you choose. We need ushers, lectors, sub deacons, chalice bearers, and intinction chalice bearers at both services. If you are already a Worship Volunteer, please sign up in the Narthex

PASTORAL CARE

Intercessory Prayer: If you have a prayer need, you are invited to contact the office or Pete and Cher Tooley, tooleypc@sbcglobal.net and your need will be shared via email as soon as possible. If you are at the church, you may also fill out a prayer card located in the pews in order to add a need to the intercessory prayer list. Likewise, if you would like to serve as a prayer warrior, let the office or Pete and Cher know and you will be added to the email notification list. Please update your request every two weeks.

Services - Please contact the office regarding Baptisms, Marriages, Confirmation or the Sacrament of Reconciliation

For Pastoral Emergencies, call 920-336-9571 and press 7 to be directed to a confidential voicemail box where a member of our Clergy will receive your message and get back with you as soon as they are able.

Prayer Shawl Ministry meets on the 2nd and 4th Thursday of each month from 5:30-6:45pm. For more information, please contact Tina Ackerman at (920) 619-4637.

Creative Kindness meets on the the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of the month in Miller Hall from 10 am - 2 pm. All are welcome and encouraged to join in. Questions? Contact Joan Junkhan (davejoan1@gmail.com).

TRANSITION UPDATE

The search committee has made a lot of progress in the search process. They have completed the church profile and have answered all of the questions for the Office of Transitional Ministry before their October 1 deadline. They have submitted both of these documents to Senior Warden, Eric Miller, so he can present them to Vestry for review and approval. Soon the search committee will begin to work on the interview questions. Please continue to pray for the search process and our St. Anne's family during this transition time.

Joyfully submitted,

Jennie Barnes - Chairperson (JJBarnes6503@gmail.com)

Emily Hamilton (ehamilton@new.rr.com), Jim Joy (jimgjoy@gmail.com), Matt Borowitz (mthechequeguy1@gmail.com), Jeanine Limberger (Manateecalf@gmail.com) Rose Anne Stoia (Stoiggers@gmail.com), Vic Van Gemert (vangemertvic@gmail.com), Armida Zapien-Kimps (armbyler@gmail.com)

"When the waiting grows long, I will stay with you. I have sat in hospitals, beside phones, in empty churches with only the sound of my prayers to mark the time. Do not confuse time with love. Waiting itself is holy. God will provide. The answer will come. Until then, I will stay with you, just as you have stayed with me."

Requests for Money or Gift Cards

Our Clergy (and Staff or Vestry for that matter) WILL NEVER ASK YOU FOR MONEY OR GIFT CARDS via email or text, ever. If you receive requests like these, please either report them to your email support or the police department, if appropriate.

About this Service

To live as a Christian is to respond to God in thanksgiving for our creation, redemption, and all the blessings of this life. "Eucharist" means thanksgiving, and this service of thanksgiving is the heart of the life of thanksgiving. It is the one service Jesus gave to his church and commanded us to use.

The pattern is very simple. It falls into two parts. In the first, we hear again the readings from the Bible what God has done for us, culminating in the Gospel, God's perfect word to us in Jesus Christ. This is expounded in the sermon and affirmed in the Creed.

The second part expresses our response to God, beginning with prayers for the world and seeking forgiveness for our sin. Then, having greeted one another with a sign of reconciliation and peace, we bring our thank-offerings to the altar - the money we have, and above all, bread and wine as symbols of the gifts of earth worked by human hands. In the great Prayer of Thanksgiving which follows they become, we believe, the Body and Blood of Christ, of his community and his life. We join our self-offering to his, who alone made the perfect response of love to God, asking that we may be accepted with him and in him. That acceptance is joyfully sealed in the receiving of Holy Communion. So we go out, strengthened to live our daily life to God's glory. (Adapted from Canterbury Cathedral)
