Mary Lynn anoints and prays for the person requesting prayer.

The Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you govern all things both in heaven and on earth: Mercifully hear the supplications of your people, and in our time grant us your peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Jeremiah 1:4-10

The word of the Lord came to me saying,

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,
and before you were born I consecrated you;
I appointed you a prophet to the nations."

Then I said, "Ah, Lord God! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy." But the Lord said to me,

"Do not say, 'I am only a boy';
for you shall go to all to whom I send you,
and you shall speak whatever I command you,
Do not be afraid of them,
for I am with you to deliver you,

says the Lord."

Then the Lord put out his hand and touched my mouth; and the Lord said to me,

"Now I have put my words in your mouth.
See, today I appoint you over nations and over kingdoms,
to pluck up and to pull down,
to destroy and to overthrow,
to build and to plant."

Psalm 71:1-6

In te, Domine, speravi

1. In you, O Lord, have I taken refuge; *
let me never be ashamed.

2. In your righteousness, deliver me and set me free; *
incline your ear to me and save me.

3. Be my strong rock, a castle to keep me safe; *
you are my crag and my stronghold.

4. Deliver me, my God, from the hand of the wicked, *
from the clutches of the evildoer and the oppressor.

5. For you are my hope, O Lord God, *
my confidence since I was young.

6. I have been sustained by you ever since I was born;
from my mother's womb you have been my strength; *
my praise shall be always of you.

1 Corinthians 13:1-13

If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end. For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part; but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known. And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

Luke 4:21-30

In the synagogue at Nazareth, Jesus read from the book of the prophet Isaiah, and began to say, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing." All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They said, "Is not this Joseph's son?" He said to them, "Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, 'Doctor, cure yourself!' And you will say, 'Do here also in your hometown the things that we have heard you did at Capernaum.'" And he said, "Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in the prophet's hometown. But the truth is, there were many widows in Israel in the time of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, and there was a severe famine over all the land; yet Elijah was sent to none of them except to a widow at Zarephath in Sidon. There were also many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian." When they heard this, all in the synagogue were filled with rage. They got up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they might hurl him off the cliff. But he passed through the midst of them and went on his way.

TRANSITION UPDATE

*(Watch this section for the latest news from the Vestry and Search Team on the transition process.
Note that sometimes, there may not be anything to update!)*

On January 8th, the Vestry met with the Diocesan Transition Officer, Mother Meredyth Albright. She will be guiding us through this process of transition and calling a new rector. Based on her guidance, the Vestry has contacted and has just finalized arrangements as follows: We will have a rotation of supply priests for Wednesday and Sunday Mass from January 27th through February 27th. Priest Joanne Skidmore will be our permanent, part-time Interim Rector beginning Sunday, March 3rd. You may remember that Priest Joanne supplied during Fr. Eric's sabbatical two years ago. We extend a warm welcome to our supply priests and Priest Joanne!

Worship Notes

About this Service

To live as a Christian is to respond to God in thanksgiving for our creation, redemption, and all the blessings of this life. "Eucharist" means thanksgiving, and this service of thanksgiving is the heart of the life of thanksgiving. It is the one service Jesus gave to his church and commanded us to use.

The pattern is very simple. It falls into two parts. In the first, we hear again the readings from the Bible what God has done for us, culminating in the Gospel, God's perfect word to us in Jesus Christ. This is expounded in the sermon and affirmed in the Creed.

The second part expresses our response to God, beginning with prayers for the world and seeking forgiveness for our sin. Then, having greeted one another with a sign of reconciliation and peace, we bring our thank-offerings to the altar - the money we have, and above all, bread and wine as symbols of the gifts of earth worked by human hands. In the great Prayer of Thanksgiving which follows they become, we believe, the Body and Blood of Christ, of his community and his life. We join our self-offering to his, who alone made the perfect response of love to God, asking that we may be accepted with him and in him. That acceptance is joyfully sealed in the receiving of Holy Communion. So we go out, strengthened to live our daily life to God's glory. (Adapted from Canterbury Cathedral)
