The Collect

---

O God, who before the passion of your only begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Exodus 34:29-35

Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the Lord had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; but whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

Psalm 99

Dominus regnavit

1. The Lord is King; let the people tremble; *
he is enthroned upon the cherubim;
let the earth shake.

2. The Lord is great in Zion; *
he is high above all peoples.

3. Let them confess his Name,
which is great and awesome; *
he is the Holy One.

4. "O mighty King, lover of justice,
you have established equity; *
you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob."

5. Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God and fall down before his footstool; *
he is the Holy One.

6. Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among those who call upon his Name, *
they called upon the Lord, and he answered them.

7. He spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; *
they kept his testimonies and the decree that he gave them.

8. O Lord our God, you answered them indeed; *
you were a God who forgave them,
yet punished them for their evil deeds.

9. Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God
and worship him upon his holy hill; *
for the Lord our God is the Holy One.

2 Corinthians 3:12-4:2

Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

Luke 9:28-36

Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"--not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!" When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

Please take the insert and share it with a friend or neighbor! NOTE: Four people are needed to assist in the morning and the evening. Please contact Dcn Mary Lynn if you can help!

Prayers using the Anglican Prayer Beads will begin promptly 15 minutes prior to Mass on Sundays and Tuesdays. There will be prayer beads available for your use, or bring your own. Each week has its own prayer sheet: please take these sheets with you to continue daily prayers at home. If you are not interested in participating in the communal prayers, please enter the sanctuary quietly, and pray along with us in your heart. ## About this Service

To live as a Christian is to respond to God in thanksgiving for our creation, redemption, and all the blessings of this life. "Eucharist" means thanksgiving, and this service of thanksgiving is the heart of the life of thanksgiving. It is the one service Jesus gave to his church and commanded us to use.

The pattern is very simple. It falls into two parts. In the first, we hear again the readings from the Bible what God has done for us, culminating in the Gospel, God's perfect word to us in Jesus Christ. This is expounded in the sermon and affirmed in the Creed.

The second part expresses our response to God, beginning with prayers for the world and seeking forgiveness for our sin. Then, having greeted one another with a sign of reconciliation and peace, we bring our thank-offerings to the altar - the money we have, and above all, bread and wine as symbols of the gifts of earth worked by human hands. In the great Prayer of Thanksgiving which follows they become, we believe, the Body and Blood of Christ, of his community and his life. We join our self-offering to his, who alone made the perfect response of love to God, asking that we may be accepted with him and in him. That acceptance is joyfully sealed in the receiving of Holy Communion. So we go out, strengthened to live our daily life to God's glory. (Adapted from Canterbury Cathedral)
