Mary Lynn anoints and prays for the person requesting prayer.

The Collect

Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Deuteronomy 30:15-20

Moses said to all Israel the words which the Lord commanded him, "See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity. If you obey the commandments of the Lord your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the Lord your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the Lord your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, loving the Lord your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the Lord swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."

Psalm 1

Beatus vir qui non abiit

1. Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, *
nor lingered in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the seats of the scornful!

2. Their delight is in the law of the Lord, *
and they meditate on his law day and night.

3. They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; *
everything they do shall prosper.

4. It is not so with the wicked; *
they are like chaff which the wind blows away.

5. Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes, *
nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.

6. For the Lord knows the way of the righteous, *
but the way of the wicked is doomed.

Philemon 1-21

Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,

To Philemon our dear friend and co-worker, to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

When I remember you in my prayers, I always thank my God because I hear of your love for all the saints and your faith toward the Lord Jesus. I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective when you perceive all the good that we may do for Christ. I have indeed received much joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, my brother.

For this reason, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do your duty, yet I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love-- and I, Paul, do this as an old man, and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become during my imprisonment. Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful both to you and to me. I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you. I wanted to keep him with me, so that he might be of service to me in your place during my imprisonment for the gospel; but I preferred to do nothing without your consent, in order that your good deed might be voluntary and not something forced. Perhaps this is the reason he was separated from you for a while, so that you might have him back forever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, a beloved brother-- especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. If he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. I say nothing about your owing me even your own self. Yes, brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ. Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.

Luke 14:25-33

Now large crowds were traveling with Jesus; and he turned and said to them, "Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, 'This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.' Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions."

Ubi Caritas

U - bi car - i - tas, et a - mor, u - bi car - i - tas, De - us i - bi est.

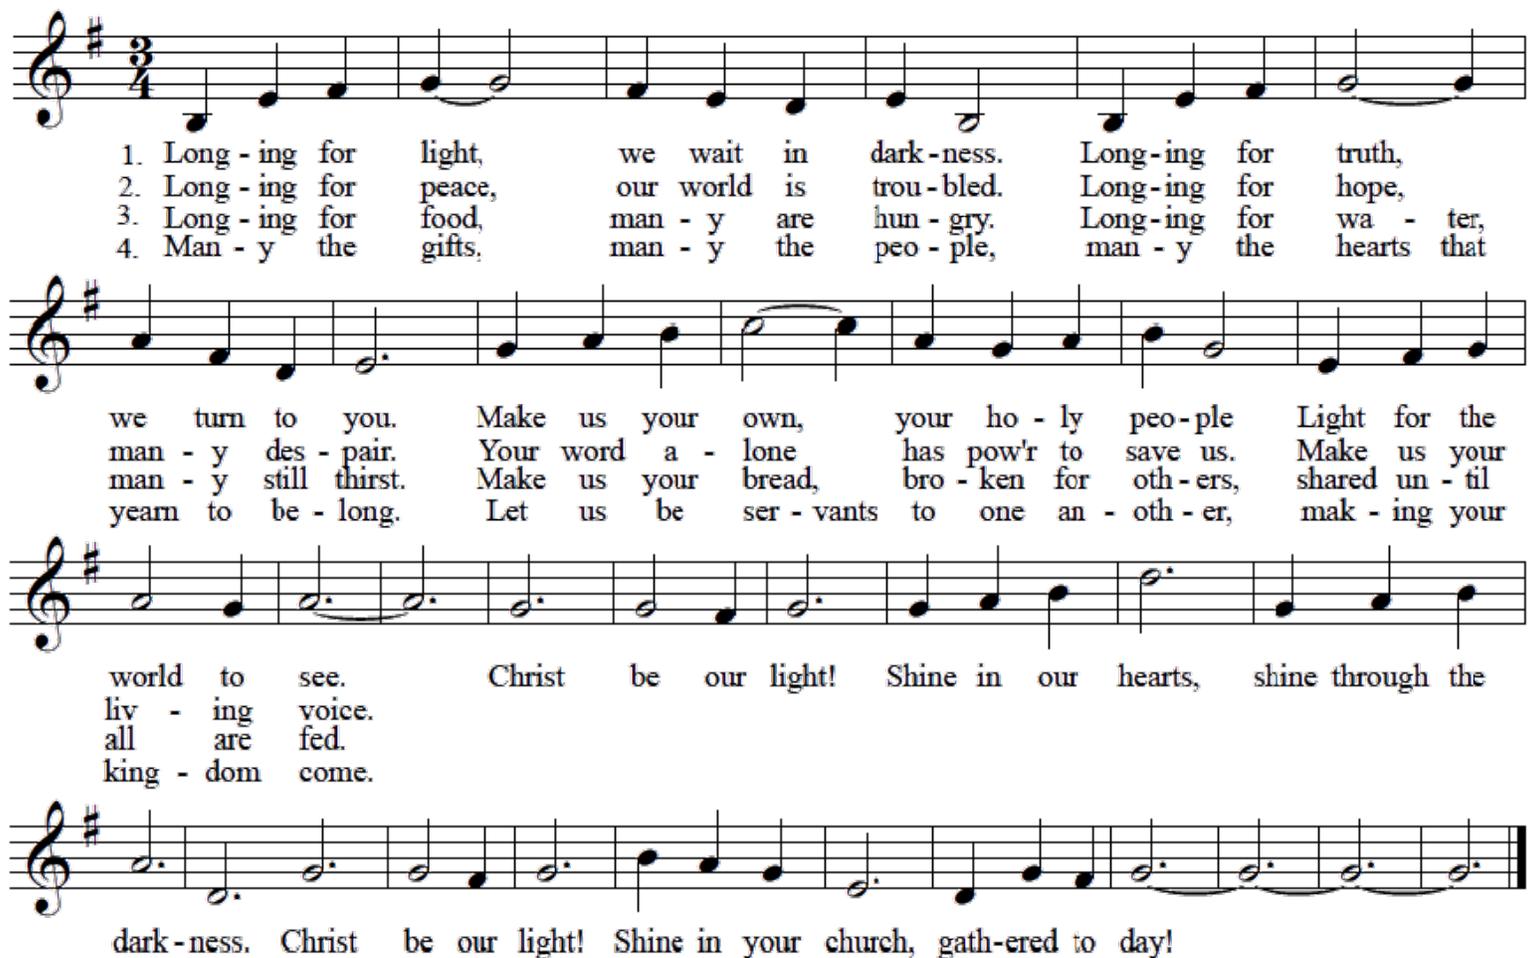

The musical notation is in 2/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). The melody consists of two staves. The first staff contains the lyrics 'U - bi car - i - tas, et a - mor,'. The second staff contains 'u - bi car - i - tas, De - us i - bi est.' and features a triplet of eighth notes on the word 'est'.

Revive Is Coming to St. Anne's

A small group from St. Anne's participated in Revive as a test to see if this might be a good fit for St. Anne's family --- and all eight participants said absolutely.

From Donna Madary: This class has been very good to help me learn more ways to pray. It has given me a choice to try new things and to figure out what works best for me. It gave me a sense of how to head in the direction that God wants me to go and a way to get there.

From Margaret Gonzales: I had no idea what it would involve and had no expectations. But having been through this process, I can say it has made an impact on my spiritual life that will be with me for the rest of my life. It also provided a way for fellowship to develop that I feel was positive for everyone in the group. I would recommend this program to anyone that is looking for a way to grow spiritually.

So, what is Revive?

Revive is a small-group discipleship program for laity to help them grow in confidence as spiritual leaders who love God and want to live a Jesus-shaped life. Ministry in and beyond the church can at times be demanding and difficult. Revive is offered as a gift to our lay members to give them the chance to be re-energized with some new ideas and lots of laughter and to learn about themselves and the God we serve. Lay members join their minister in a safe setting, where they find words to describe their spiritual experiences and grow in intimacy with God as a follower of Christ.

We will be meeting on Mondays, 5:30-7:30 pm for 7 weeks beginning Oct 7. The Oct 7 gathering will be an hour longer and include a light meal. Sign-up on Spiritual Growth bulletin board, Miller Hall – 12 participants max! Cost $12 for Participant's Guide.

Announcements

WELCOME

Visiting Today? Welcome to St Anne's. You will find a card that describes our Sunday service in the pew rack in front of you. During the announcements, you will be invited to identify yourself as a visitor - please know you will not be asked to stand or to speak, we simply want to provide you with a visitor's bag. We invite you to sign our visitor's book located in the Narthex before you leave today. Please join us in Miller Hall following the service for a time of fellowship and to meet our clergy. We are so glad you chose to join us this morning!

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY! Welcome Back Sunday!!! Blessing of Students & Teachers at both services. Don't forget to drop your school supply donation off in the narthex. We hope you can stay and enjoy our Welcome Back themed Coffee Hour following the 10 am service.

Sunday School started TODAY. Are your children registered?? Forms are in the narthex and online.

Youth Group Kickoff Event THIS Wednesday, September 11th from 6 pm - 7:30 pm in Miller Parish Hall. Please sign up in the narthex so we know how much food to prepare.

Men's Ministry Coordinator NEEDED: Joe Brand, who has been the coordinator of Men's Ministry for the last two years has stepped down. This ministry is running strong. Let's keep it going. Contact Joe Brand (920-265-3961 or joe.m.brand@gmail.com) for more details.

PrideAlive, which was cancelled in July due to weather, has been re-scheduled for THIS Saturday, September 14th at the Brown County Fairgrounds. St. Anne's will have a booth along with four other churches: Union Congregational UCC, First Congregational UCC, Christ Community Lutheran Church and Trinity Lutheran Church. Come and enjoy a day of celebrating community! If you are interested in helping with the booth, please contact Dcn. Mary Lynn.

Staffing of the Nursery on Sundays: At present, we have two paid people staffing the Nursery each Sunday. Other than their own children, there have been no other children utilizing the Nursery for several months. The Vestry discussed this at the most recent Vestry meeting. It was decided to staff the Nursery for the remainder of August, all of September and the first Sunday in October. At the October 8th Vestry meeting, the Vestry will re-assess the situation. If there are no children utilizing the Nursery, we will stop staffing it. Please bring any concerns to your Vestry.

THIS WEEK: The Good News Café is an exploration of the Bible, with plenty of discussion! Bring your lunch or a snack and your Bible and we'll munch on good things to eat and God's Word. This fall: The Revelation to John, ten sessions beginning September 11th and ending November 20th. Sign up for Wednesday lunch, noon to 1:00, or for Wednesday evening, 5:00 to 6:00. Bring a bag lunch if you'd like. We'll have coffee, tea, ice water available and snacks available for purchase. The book we'll use is Journey Through Revelation, Apocalyptic Hope for Today by Barbara R. Rossing, available for $8. Sign up sheets are in the narthex and on line at our website. Come and learn about this fascinating book of the Bible: will there be a "rapture"? Are only 144,000 souls to be saved? What about those Four Horsemen????? Come and find out!

Sharing our Stories: In Paul's letter to the Galatians, we were reminded that generosity is one of the hallmarks of discipleship. We want to invite you to reflect on your life with St. Anne's family in the coming months especially as it relates to generosity. Your generosity AND the generosity of St. Anne's family. You are invited to share some of your story. On tables in Miller Parish Hall there are table tents with a question and sheets to write your story, your thoughts. Then post them on the designated board. You can include your name, or you can choose not to give your name. Some of the comments will be included in each month's Good News. There are sheets in the office as well. You can also send your responses via email or regular mail. (stannesoffice@sbcglobal.net)

Pet Blessings & Shelter Collection: On Sunday Oct. 6th we will be having a pet blessing at 9am in the East parking lot. Many of our beloved pets probably came from shelters or rescue groups so we are going to take up a collection of items for the Humane Society. There will be a box in the back of the church beginning Sept. 15th. You can also go online and purchase cat and dog food directly on the Wisconsin Humane Society website. Items the shelter is in need of include dog and cat food, 1 gallon size Ziploc bags, facial tissue, unscented baby wipes and soft dog treats. Many other items are also listed on the humane society website. Any questions contact Beth Nasal at 362-5275.

PARISH LIFE

Coffee Hour: St. Anne's is a welcoming congregation, and a part of that is our coffee hour! Invite the person next to you, the person who is new, the person you don't know very well to join you for a cup of coffee and conversation. Treats are always nice to have, so sign up for a Sunday every now and then to bring treats. And then pitch in to help with the clean up. St. Anne's is a family living and growing in Christ: and sharing in the ministry of welcoming!

Do you want to use space at St. Anne's for church or personal purposes? If so, please contact Bobbie at the church office (336-9571) to confirm availability of the various spaces and any fees associated with that use.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH TEAM

SAVE THE DATE: As part of the SGT (Spiritual Growth Team), the Welcome Ministry is planning to host a Newcomer's Potluck Luncheon on Sunday, September 29, after the 10:00am service. Please mark your calendars and plan to join us in Miller/Parish Hall to welcome our newest members and visitors to St. Anne's. If you were a newcomer earlier this year but could not make our March potluck please join us this time. Sign up in the Parish Hall. Questions? Contact Rachel Annis (920-429-2764), Donna Madary (920-217-5613), or Jeanine Limberger (720-560-4361).

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Sunday School Teachers WANTED for Fall: We are in need of Sunday School Teachers for the Jr./Sr High class. Please see Angie Hoey for more information. We hope some of you will pray and discern if you are called to this ministry. Also, please pray that God will move people to say "yes".

DPCO Food Pantry: For the month of SEPTEMBER De Pere Christian Outreach Food Pantry needs are: Pancake Mix, Syrup, Canned Pasta, Jams & Jellies, Canned Soups, Instant Potatoes. Thank you for helping to support our community and the pantry. De Pere Christian Outreach Food Pantry

WORSHIP

Altar Flowers Remember to schedule flowers for your special occasion or memory. Donations are $40 per arrangement and can be placed in the offering plate on Sunday, in the collection box in the narthex, or handed in to the office. Sign up in the narthex.

Worship Volunteers: If serving as a worship volunteer is something that you feel called to do or simply would like to explore, please let the office know. We will make sure you are trained and comfortable in whatever role you choose. We need ushers, lectors, sub deacons, chalice bearers, and intinction chalice bearers at both services. If you are already a Worship Volunteer, please sign up in the Narthex

PASTORAL CARE

Intercessory Prayer: If you have a prayer need, you are invited to contact the office or Pete and Cher Tooley, tooleypc@sbcglobal.net and your need will be shared via email as soon as possible. If you are at the church, you may also fill out a prayer card located in the pews in order to add a need to the intercessory prayer list. Likewise, if you would like to serve as a prayer warrior, let the office or Pete and Cher know and you will be added to the email notification list. Please update your request every two weeks.

Services - Please contact the office regarding Baptisms, Marriages, Confirmation or the Sacrament of Reconciliation

For Pastoral Emergencies, call 920-336-9571 and press 7 to be directed to a confidential voicemail box where a member of our Clergy will receive your message and get back with you as soon as they are able.

Prayer Shawl Ministry meets on the 2nd and 4th Thursday of each month from 5:30-6:45pm. For more information, please contact Tina Ackerman at (920) 619-4637.

Creative Kindness meets on the the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of the month in Miller Hall from 10 am - 2 pm. All are welcome and encouraged to join in. Questions? Contact Joan Junkhan (davejoan1@gmail.com).

TRANSITION UPDATE

The Search Committee thanks you for the input they collected from you at the input sessions and time line events. The information gathered has been very helpful as they work on the church profile and Office of Transitional Ministry questions. Thank you for the continued prayers as we finish these tasks and move to work on the interview questions. This beautiful cross with the buttons represents all of the different qualities and characteristics everyone feels is important for our next priest to have. It also represents YOUR contribution to the search process.

Gratefully submitted,

"When the waiting grows long, I will stay with you. I have sat in hospitals, beside phones, in empty churches with only the sound of my prayers to mark the time. Do not confuse time with love. Waiting itself is holy. God will provide.

The answer will come. Until then, I will stay with you, just as you have stayed with me."

Requests for Money or Gift Cards

Our Clergy (and Staff or Vestry for that matter) WILL NEVER ASK YOU FOR MONEY OR GIFT CARDS via email or text, ever. If you receive requests like these, please either report them to your email support or the police department, if appropriate.

We are in no way connected to requests of this nature and have no way of knowing how they are obtaining contact information. We will continue to work hard to protect your information on our end, but urge you to also review personal security settings on all of the devices you use for sensitive information.

About this Service

To live as a Christian is to respond to God in thanksgiving for our creation, redemption, and all the blessings of this life. "Eucharist" means thanksgiving, and this service of thanksgiving is the heart of the life of thanksgiving. It is the one service Jesus gave to his church and commanded us to use.

The pattern is very simple. It falls into two parts. In the first, we hear again the readings from the Bible what God has done for us, culminating in the Gospel, God's perfect word to us in Jesus Christ. This is expounded in the sermon and affirmed in the Creed.

The second part expresses our response to God, beginning with prayers for the world and seeking forgiveness for our sin. Then, having greeted one another with a sign of reconciliation and peace, we bring our thank-offerings to the altar - the money we have, and above all, bread and wine as symbols of the gifts of earth worked by human hands. In the great Prayer of Thanksgiving which follows they become, we believe, the Body and Blood of Christ, of his community and his life. We join our self-offering to his, who alone made the perfect response of love to God, asking that we may be accepted with him and in him. That acceptance is joyfully sealed in the receiving of Holy Communion. So we go out, strengthened to live our daily life to God's glory. (Adapted from Canterbury Cathedral)
